

High peak Women's Aid (HPWA) provides services for women affected by Domestic Abuse.

We are recruiting a volunteer to help with our crèches which run within our refuge. We have two crèches;

Crèche Volunteer

You will help the play worker provide enjoyable, safe, and creative activities that will help build life skills for children aged 0-5years. You will promote personal safety and healthy living, whilst at the same time promoting children's physical, social and emotional wellbeing, and raise their self esteem.

Activities are varied from art & craft, board games to drama and/or outings. You will observe high standards of safety at all times and will be expected to leave equipment in clean and good condition and ensure that the venue is clean and tidy after each session. You will also be expected to carry out other tasks within the role as requested by the refuge staff.

You will be required to complete an application form and attend an informal interview; if successful we will take up two references and also a CRB check.

Some experience of working with children would be preferable but is not essential.

You will be notified of any available and relevant training opportunities.

You can expect to claim reasonable travel expenses.
